ABOUT THE BOOK

When her daddy reads to Lulu stories, her imagination is ignited! She inspires to be many things: from fairy to farmer, tiger to tiny pilot... what will she become today!

OUR THOUGHTS

"It's a very lovely, pro-book, pro-story-time tale which is just as enjoyable as the first Lulu book."

THEMES:

- Reading
- Days of the Week
- Family
- Imagination

TIME TO TALK

- 1 Do you do anything every Saturday? Do you enjoy it?
- 2 Would you like to read the first story Lulu has? How do we know whether we will enjoy a story or not?
- 3 Do you know where either of the places is that Lulu pretends to visit on Monday? Is there somewhere in the world you would really like to go one day?
- 4 Which day does Lulu play with Jacob?
- 5 Why might Lulu feel a bit frightened on Tuesday evening? What other scary characters might you have in a story?
- 6 Would you like to be a farmer? What would be good/ bad about this job? Is there another job you would like to do?
- 7 On which day do you think you would have enjoyed the story most? Why?
- 8 What would you do with a pair of magical shoes?
